If not in Seattle forward to Hotel Pennington Spokane)

Yesterday building grounds committee voted maintenance of work under park bond issue including work already being done be placed in charge director of works. Allen was also directed to proceed with work already planned by Olmstead. new park commission voted against this, our committee considered it a test of commissions attitude respecting cooperation, today park commissioners have resigned their office and mayor himself will also probably resign. New administration will undoubtedly be friendly to exposition. I think you should come here as soon as possible to present the Olmstead
