PANAMA
CALIFORNIA EXPOSITION SONG

MEET ME IN SAN DIEGO
1915

Words and Music by
WALLACE WAKEFIELD

ROBERT E. LARKINS
MUSIC PUBLISHER
212 West Third St., Los Angeles Cal.

THE SAN DIEGO
SONG SHOP
1056 SIXTH ST.
SHEET MUSIC, PICTURES AND NOVELTIES
MUCK & DU COMMUN.
SHOPS
MEET ME IN SAN DIEGO
1915.

Words and Music by
WALLACE WAKEFIELD.
Arranged by Albert A. Kendall.

In the year of nineteen fifteen,
She's a harbor none can excel,
Now all of you give a loud cheer,
This
And the
For the Copyright 1810 by Wallace Wakefield. town I know will be Queen, Of all the grand est cli- mate as well, The sun shines year that is draw- ing near, For on the cities on the coast, And then shall have some from a clear blue sky, In this old town I'll first of nine- teen one - five, This grand old town will room to boast, For a great ex - po - si - tion, Will be the ad - live and die, In the Win - ter or Sum - mer, She's al - ways a be a - live, Ther'll be jolli - fi - ca - tion, And great cel - e - di - tion, To Old San Di - e - go town.

stun - ner, Is Old San Di - e - go town.
bra - tion, In Old San Di - e - go town.

Meet Me In San Diego...
CHORUS.

Meet me in San Diego, Come along boys let us all go,

All of you shout with a rah! rah! rah! To boost the Fair and the Panama,

You know the world knows and I know, That people of San Diego, Won't stand at attention, So don't fail to mention the coming Fair. —