Received from Mr. William H. Washburn, for exhibition at the Panama-California Exposition, one Southeastern Alaska Indian Canoe, about thirty-two feet long. Also one Souvenir Native Canoe, about eighteen inches long.

It is understood that these specimens are to be exhibited in the Indian Arts Building during the exposition year of 1915, at the end of which time they will be turned over to the owner on his request. It is also understood that the specimens are received and exhibited at the owner's risk.
