"The House of Sunshine and Hospitality"

HOTEL ST. JAMES

SAN DIEGO, CALIFORNIA

On Sixth Street, between E and F Streets

One-half Block from all Car Lines

The St. James is a new, eleven story Steel and Concrete building, facing on Sixth street and rear view of the bay, and contains 150 rooms, 75 of which are rooms with private baths.

Located on Sixth between E and F streets, within a block or two of all car lines, and in easy walking distance of all the best Cafes, Restaurants, Places of Amusement and the Retail Shopping District, and catering to those desiring quiet Homelike, Refined Surroundings, at moderate cost.

Being a moderate sized house, there is less of the spirit of Commerce, and more of the spirit of Home than is possible in a very large house.

The House is equipped with every modern appliance for the convenience and safety of its guests, and is elegantly furnished with special reference to their comfort, and the service will be found superior to any of its kind.

Our Rooms are all outside rooms, with the greatest possible amount of sunshine and Fresh Air, and with perfect deadened walls and floors, insuring perfect privacy, and freedom from the annoyance of other people's conversation and actions.

A large and comfortable Lobby and Parlor on the ground floor makes a convenient meeting place for guests and their friends, which adds to the spirit of hospitality which is one of the characteristics of the house.

The Roof Garden is the show place of the city, and the view is unsurpassed, the Exposition Grounds, Mexican Mountains, Coronado and the Bay are a few of the points of interest that are in plain view.
